

Newsletter for October 2024

Bag2school

There will be a collection of bags on Wed 13 Nov to raise money for school funds. Leaflets with further details will follow soon.

Artist Workshop

Phil White is a visual artist specialising in sketch and paint work and will be visiting school on Wed 23 October. He will lead an inspirational workshop for KS2, focusing initially on sketching around the school before heading into the classroom to demonstrate ideas for developing the sketches into paintings and simple prints.

Harvest Festival

Our Harvest Festival will be held in St Edith's Church on Friday 11 October at 11am. Everyone is welcome. We have requested gifts of food to be donated to 'The People's Pantry' in Pocklington and you will find details in the recent letter sent out. I hope you can join us.

Flu Vaccinations

The Vaccination Team will be visiting school on Wednesday 9th October. Please remember to give your consent if you wish your child to receive a vaccination.

Foundation Federation Day

Reception children will be visiting Middleton school on the 6th of November for a fun filled day meeting other children in the federation and exploring new activities

KS1 Amy Johnson Visit

This term in our History topic we have been finding out about Amy Johnson. KS1 children across the Federation will be visiting Sewerby Hall on the 6th of November for a workshop looking at Amy Johnson's achievements, interests, fame and place as a role model. Details will be sent out shortly.

KS2 Science and Music

KS2 will be taking part in a science and music day at Bridlington Spa on the 24th October. Details to follow.
