Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to share some exciting news about a new parent support initiative at Bishop Wilton.

We are delighted to introduce our School and Community Practitioner, Sami Sayers, who will be hosting a series of drop-in sessions to support our families. These informal gatherings are designed to provide you with accessible help and guidance on a range of important matters.

The drop-in session will take place in the dinner hall from 8:45 until 11:00am

There's absolutely no need to book - simply come along! The team will be offering support with a whole range of topics including managing behaviour and emotions, establishing helpful routines, and can signpost you to additional services that might benefit your family.

We look forward to welcoming you and supporting your family's wellbeing.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs R Mellonby
Assistant Headteacher
